POW! Picture Our World

Photography &amp; Digital Story-telling

How do you see our world?

What makes our community?

Who is a part of our neighbourhood?

POW! (Picture Our World) is a 6-week project for youth who live in White Rock and South Surrey. This program will teach youth basic photography skills and create connections within our community. Whether you are new to Canada or have lived here your whole life, this is a great way to explore our community.

what is a feminar?
Tune in to an exciting new series!
A Feminar is a fun forum for women to hear specialists in the fields of fashion, makeup, hair, personal coaching, shopping, hypnosis, fitness, nutrition, aromatherapy, accessories & eye wear.
Each night features two or three specialists sharing their knowledge, insights and wisdom, followed by demonstrations, application & interactive participation.
These specialists are women you would normally have to book individually at different times & locations. With the Funtastic Feminar Series, they are all gathered together in one place, once a week, over one month. The Funtastic Feminar Series is a participatory & engaging series of nights. Learn, gain insight, be exposed to new ideas & make new friends!
